COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 27.

THE only changes shown in Reuter's regular list of quotations from London yesterday were a decline of ⅛ in Four and 1-16 in Four-and-a-half per cent. Rupee Paper. Consols remain at 102¾, and the decline in French Rentes appears to have stopped at 116½, which may be accepted as distinctly reassuring regarding the Egyptian situation, which otherwise wears a somewhat critical aspect. Read by themselves, in fact, the political telegrams received to-day would bear a very serious interpretation, but respecting no other Powers than Turkey and Egypt is the Stock Exchange better informed, and no great apprehension can be felt regarding the ultimate result, or some evidence of it would have been apparent. A word as to how Egyptian stocks have been going lately would have afforded a good deal of information as to the commercial view of the position, and considering the interest we on this side of Suez are bound to take in the course of affairs, something of the kind might have occurred to Reuter, but unfortunately his arrangements in this respect are on a very hard-and-fast line.

The general produce markets, so far as they affect Bombay, all appear to have been unaltered yesterday, no change whatever being made in the quotations for Coffee, Seeds, or Wheat.

Piece-Goods in Manchester are reported firm at previous prices, and Reuter reports the Liverpool Cotton market as closing firm, both for spot and arrivals. The sales, however, were only estimated at 10,000 bales, and private telegrams call the closing tone of the market quiet at slightly easier prices. Some portion of the previous firmness, we understand was due to reports from this side of supplies being probably limited by an early setting in of the monsoon, but if so, the receipts of the past few days must have gone some way towards undeceiving people, upwards of 31,000 bales of cotton having come in here in the past two days. When we come to think that this is rather more than double the entire quantity received at the American shipping ports for all last week, the importance of our figures will be understood, and it will be seen that an early or late setting in of the rains may have an important effect on home prices.

We subjoin our usual weekly comparison of the statistical position of the staple. Since the previous Friday the total visible supply has decreased by 80,000 bales, but the Liverpool stock has only gone down 2,000 bales, and now stands 59,000 bales over the same date last year, whilst for the U. K. the visible supply is 240,000 bales over last year. This is undoubtedly a weak point as regards prices, as although the excess in Liverpool must mean a proportionate falling off on the Continent, and may ultimately necessitate the Continent taking from Liverpool what they have failed to take direct from Bombay and the States, still in the meantime the pressure to sell must be felt where the stock has most largely accumulated.

The American crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous seasons :—

	1882	1881	1880
Week's receipts	14,000	37,000	21,000
,, Exports to U. K.	19,000	46,000	45,000
,, ,, to Continent	6,000	21,000	11,000
Total receipts since 1st Sept	4,478,000	5,491,400	4,752,100
,, Exports to U.K. ,,	2,070,700	2,451,600	2,247,000
,, ,, to Cont. ,,	1,121,100	1,603,700	1,187,900
,, Stock at the ports	471,000	494,000	489,000
Saturday's Receipts	2,000	5,500	2,600

The total visible supply of cotton for all Europe on the 26th instant compares with the two previous years as follows :—

	1882.	1881.	1880.
Total supply of all kinds	2,600,000	2,828,410	2,429,610
Do. do. Surats	908,000	537,680	578,150

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	989,000	930,560	766,510
Do. London	63,000	46,800	49,290
American afloat	130,000	119,000	213,000
East Indian afloat	275,000	120,000	165,000
	1,457,000	1,216,360	1,193,800
	d.	d.	d.
Prices of Mid.-Uplands	6⅜	5 15-16	6 11-16
Do. Fair Dhollera	4¼	4	5
Difference	2⅛	1 13-16	1 11-16

COTTON here to-day has ruled very firm, and a very fair extent of business has been done for export, the purchases being put down at about 4,000 bales. Good Dholleras continue the description most in demand and also in largest supply. Real Dhollera or Bhownugger to class good is not perhaps to be met with in large quantities, but the professional mixer makes and passes off to a large extent what is really a very good imitation of it in every thing except the staple, by a judicious compound of Cutch, Persian, Veraval, and Scinde, and in this way the Dhollera crop is being made up to about twice its natural size. What the result of the shipment of such stuff to Europe must eventually be it is not difficult to anticipate. So for this season the Lancashina spinner has only received Oomras and Broach more or less honestly pressed cotton, and accordingly Surats far the time are in fairly good estimation, but in another month or two the well-known "Bombay mixture" of Dholleras will begin to come freely on the Liverpool market, and we are very much mistaken if the advisability of re-introducing the "Cotton Frauds Act" does not then become a matter for discussion. Already no inconsiderable portion of the trade would welcome the return of the Act, and before the end of the year we venture to say that the others will offer it but little opposition. Theoretically the merchants who advocated its abolition were undoubtedly right, and in the long run there can be little question that the mixtures now being so largely shipped will have to give way before honest selection ; but in the interval Indian cotton will receive an injury in the markets of Europe from which it will take years to recover, and the present generation of shippers in the interest of posterity will have to be content with the idea that virtue is its own reward.

We quote :—

Good Dholleras	Rs.	192 to Rs. 194.
,, Oomra	,,	196
,, Dharwar	,,	206

WHEAT is coming in rather more freely, and as the demand to complete May shipments is also falling off, buyers are less eager. Prices are accordingly annas 8 per candy lower all round, No. 1 soft white being down to Rs. 33½ per candy.

LINSEED is still firm at Rs. 5-9 to Rs. 5-10 per cwt. RAPESEED is in request at Rs. 6-1 per cwt. for Guzerat.

FREIGHTS vid Canal are called steadier for Liverpool at 30s. to 31s. 3d., but the market generally is no better and the steamer Crane is reported to have been fixed for Marseilles at 30s. By Cape rates are quiet at 42s. 6d. to 45s. for wood and 48s. 9d. for iron ships for Liverpool.

IMPORTS continue unchanged all round, and as a general rule are very wanting in life. Piece-Goods are not likely to show any signs of life until something of the character of the coming monsoon is apparent.

EXCHANGE on London to-day is called somewhat steadier, although why it is difficult to say. Silver at home is unchanged and rates here are unaltered, nor is there anything in the surroundings of the market to warrant anticipations of anything in the shape of an upward movement. Quotations are :—

GOVERNMENT PAPER keeps quiet, and the transactions reported to-day are insignificant. For Fours buyers offer Rs. 101⅞, but sellers hold for Rs. 102 for large amounts and Rs. 102½ to ¾ for small clean pieces. Fours-and-a-half remain at Rs. 108¾.

SHARES may be generally reported as steady.

In Banks there is no change. Press companies are strong and generally Rs. 10 to Rs. 15 higher. Spinning and Weaving Companies are also firmer again and in a few cases the previous slight decline has been recovered.

MAJOR W. H. WARREN, of the "Loyal North Lancashire" (81st Foot), brother of Colonel Warren, C.R.E., Ceylon, has died at Nynee Tal. Major Warren's death was sudden. He had been suffering from fever at Allahabad previous to going up to Nynee Tal, but it was not thought that his illness was of a dangerous kind.

SIR SALAR JUNG leaves Simla to-day, and will return to Hyderabad by easy stages. The Pioneer says that as no political objects were connected with his visit to the Viceroy, there are no special results to record at its conclusion; but the distinguished guest leaves a very pleasant impression behind him among all persons with whom he has come in contact.

THE Nizam's visit to Europe next spring has practically been settled.

IT is said that the young Maharajah of Jeypore, who is now administering his State in consultation with the Political Agent, has exhibited administrative abilities of a high order, and will probably assume the government of the State in October or November next.

ON the 25th inst. Mr. E. C. K. Ollivant, Municipal Commissioner, took charge, as a present to the city, of the drinking fountain with a clock-tower, raised by public subscriptions in Bazaar Gate-street, to the memory of the late Bomonjee Hormarjee Wadia.

CAPTAIN SHAIK CASSUM, Aide-de-Camp, to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay, has been re-appointed to the post for a term of two years. This native officer has been generally held in high favour.

IT is reported from Calcutta that Hafiz Abdal Karim, Sub-Judge of Bhagalpur, has been offered the appointment of a Judge of the Chief Court of Hyderabad.

SUITS for damages are reported to have been instituted against the Calcutta Corporation by gentlemen who were injured by a carriage accident which was due to the street excavations not being properly marked by danger lights at night. A local paper states :—"About ten nights ago three gentlemen were driving along, and owing to the excavation not being lighted, their conveyance was upset, and all three were thrown out. Two of them were slightly injured, but the third was so severely injured that he has been permanently disfigured, and he assesses the damages he has sustained at some half a lakh of rupees."

THE Bombay Guardian :—"Deputy Surgeon-General Moore has not been kept long waiting for his reward. His pamphlet in defence of the opium traffic has been wafted quickly to the empyrean of the powers that be, and he has been made a Companion of the Order of the Indian Empire. We do not grudge him his reward ; the labourer is worthy of his hire. We have the impression, though, that it would have been more dignified in the Government, if it had not shown itself so grateful for so small a service. It looks as though it had some secret qualms as regards the rectitude of its course. We observe in the last number of the Indian Witness an appreciative article on Dr. Moore's account of his visit to the opium-dens of Bombay. One who had thoroughly investigated the opium-dens of Calcutta was, of course, the fitting party to review the Bombay doctor's account of his visit to those lower regions."

THE "accounts relating to the trade by land of British India with foreign countries"—the trade across the frontier from Sind to the East Coast of British Burmah—for the nine months April to December, 1881, show a total of imports, Rs. 2,73,01,730, and of exports, Rs. 3,14,45,875, as compared to Rs. 3,35,65,601 and Rs. 3,37,90,609 respectively in the corresponding period of 1880, and to Rs. 3,10,47,548 and Rs. 2,90,72,375 in the same months of 1879. The chief trade was as usual with Upper Burmah, from which Rs. 94,00,304 worth of goods was imported, and to which goods to the amount of Rs. 1,13,095 were exported.

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF BENGAL, accompanied by his personal staff and the members of the Bengal Government, on the 24th inst., the Queen's birthday, attended a review at Jellapahar, Darjiling, of the troops and volunteers ; after which Major Vousden, V. C., 5th Punjab Cavalry, Adjutant of the Behar Mounted Rifles, was presented with the Victoria Cross for distinguished gallantry, on the 14th December, 1879, under the walls of Kabul. A speech appropriate to the occasion by the Lieutenant-Governor brought the proceedings to a close.

THE death is reported of Major J. M. Hewson, late Paymaster of the 2nd Battalion Dorsetshire Regiment (late 54th), whilst on his way home, off Perim. He was proceeding home on sick certificate, with a view to retiring, when his death took place. He has been succeeded by Honorary Captain J. T. Turner as Paymaster to the 2nd Dorsetshire.

THE North-West Provinces crop and weather report, for the week ended on the 24th instant, states :—Good rain fell in Kumaun and slight rain in two other districts. Weather warm. Hot winds set in. Prices rising. Cholera decreasing in Allahabad, Gorakhpur, and Lucknow. Some small-pox in Bareilly, Agra, and Kumaun. Cattle-disease continues in Kumaun ; a few cases reported from Benares and Partabgarh.

THE Mahomedan Association of Meerut have submitted memorials to the Viceroy, the Secretary of State for India, and the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-West Provinces, expressing the gratitude of the Mahomedan community at the appointment of Mr. Syed Mahmoud to officiate as a Puisne Judge in the Allahabad High Court.

A LATE Commissariat employé, at present in custody in the Umballa jail on charges of fraud, complains that he has been confined since November last without trial up to date, and has not even been taken before a magistrate. He lately petitioned the Punjab Chief Court praying that their lordships would pass the necessary orders for a reduction of bail to a reasonable amount, "regard being had to the nature of the offences charged, the procrastination of the prosecution in furnishing evidence, and the circumstances of the accused." Their lordships declined to interfere.

IN connection with Sirdar Mahomed Afzul's departure for Kabul,a contemporary mentions that his brother Sirdar Mahomed Aslam Khan, Ressaldar-Major of the 5th Bengal Cavalry, is commandant of the Khyber Jhezailchi Corps at Jumrood, and will doubtless escort our Agent as far as Ali Musjid, where two companies of Jhezailchis are stationed.

THE Pioneer understands that the Chief Commissioner of Burmah has received trustworthy information from Mandalay up to the 17th instant, the effect of which is to tone down previous accounts of the ill-treatment experienced by Armenians at that place. "Mrs. Antram, it appears, never got into trouble at all, but is in favour at court. Neither Mrs. George nor Mrs. Manook was beaten. Mrs. Manook is not dead, and though the ladies were put in irons at first, they were soon released."

THE Shome Prakash, a Bengal native newspaper, which was one of the victims of the Vernacular Press Act, appears ambitious of again coming under the lash of the law directed against seditious publications. The Indian Daily News asks :—"Has the attention of the Local Government been called to two articles in the last two issues of the Shome Prakash entitled, 'The future of India ?' In our opinion, the articles clearly justify a conviction under Section 124A of the Penal Code. The writer has undoubtedly attempted to excite feelings of disaffection to the Government established by law in British India, and the Government will be neglecting a plain duty if they omit to take any notice of such seditious matter. The explanation to Section 124A cannot possibly apply to these articles. There is no discussion of particular measures, and they are utterly incompatible with a disposition to render obedience to the lawful authority of the Government, and to support such authority against unlawful attempts to subvert or resist it. The articles preach pure and rank sedition, and openly persuade the people to look forward to the arrival of some new rulers as their only chance of escape from poverty, oppression, and misrule."

IN an article on the origin of caste and tribal names, and the practical value of ascertaining them, at present appearing in the pages of the Anjuman-i-Punjab, Lieutenant R. C. Temple says :—"It is always hard to say what Hinduism as practised is, and I have been long convinced from my studies of the beliefs of the lower classes of natives that it is equally hard to say what Muhammadanism or Sikhism is in the Punjab. All we can ever say of modern Hinduism is this, that it consists of a large mass of heterogeneous sects grouped round certain foundations and certain ideas of ritual. Soon we shall be able to say but very little more of Sikhism. How far it has fallen away from the doctrines of its founders, and how diverse have its now many sects become, is a matter of general notoriety. I think it is pretty much the same with Muhammadanism. What numbers of sects there are ! And how little many of them conform to the tenets of the Prophet !"

QUININE is being steadily superseded in India by the chinchona febrifuge produced in the country. It is now in general use in Government hospitals, and enters largely into private practice. Only 3,964 lbs. of quinine were imported last year, as against 7,409 lbs. in 1879-80.

THE Englishman says :—"The distinguished native gentleman—Raja Rampal Singh, Talukdar of Rampur in the Partabgarh district—who has again gone to England to make a second attempt at securing Parliamentary honours appears to be somewhat at low-water mark in matters financial. We observe that over 40 of his villages are under distraint and were to be sold by order of the District Judge of Rai Bareli on the 24th instant. Now 'property qualification' is, however, now required to become a member of Parliament."

A BENGAL native paper describes a Moonsiff as "that little bit of a judicial autocrat !"

THE Egyptian Government is reported to have threatened further vexations to India in the shape of quarantine regulations. Some warnings are said to have been given, through the channel of the English Government, about sickness of some kind at Sumatra, which India, it is conceived by the Egyptians, ought to ward off by quarantine regulations in our ports, if we do not want to be put under fresh restrictions in Egypt.

SAYS the Japan Mail of the 22nd April :—"A rumour reaches us, just as we go to press, to the effect that a disturbance has taken place at the Japanese settlement of Fusan in Korea. A body of Koreans—members, no doubt, of the anti-foreign party—are said to have attacked the Japanese residents and killed some four or five. We cannot vouch for the truth of the report, but it seems not improbable that something of the sort has occurred, inasmuch as the Korean Conservatives are believed to have established an understanding—whatever that may be worth—with the Court at Peking."

REGARDING the attempted assassination of Mr. Itagaki, the leader of the Liberal party in Japan, Yokohama papers to hand by the last China mail state that the Government have taken every opportunity of testifying their regret at this attack on their most formidable political opponent, and the Mikado sent a special messenger to inquire respecting him. The wounds were fortunately slight, but the attempt has called forth innumerable manifestations of sympathy from all parts of the country. The Japan Herald remarks :—"If we read the signs of the times aright, the excitement caused by the late attempt on the life of the Liberal champion is due to a large extent to the prevalence of progressive political opinions. To strike at Mr. Itagaki was to strike at them ; for he is the recognised head and mouthpiece of the party which is daily receiving the adhesion of all sorts and conditions of men, and will finally evict from office the present rulers of the country, who have had a very long innings. Constitutional reform and Liberal progress go hand in hand ; the days of the bureaucratic oligarchy are evidently numbered. The wave of popular discontent and jealousy that will wreck the present administration will bear Mr. Itagaki and party into power."

THE United States steamer Alert had a narrow escape whilst on a passage from Kobe to Yokohama, having been run into and cut down to the water's edge by the Mikado of Japan's yacht. Fortunately, the Alert was enabled to return to Kobe.

LAST year a prize of thirty thousand dollars in the Manila lottery was won by Japanese, and now a perfect mania has set in amongst the people of Yokohama and other Japanese towns for Manila lottery tickets. Lotteries are illegal in Japan, in the hands of any Japanese, but the Spanish agents of the Manila lottery, it appears, can keep their offices open and sell tickets with impunity.

REGARDING the prolonged discussion at Constantinople on the question—since settled, as Reuter informed us—of the Russian indemnity to be paid by Turkey, a London correspondent wrote by the last mail :—"There has been a difference of opinion between the Grand Vizier and the Sultan, and considers consider that their ground of variance related to the Russian indemnity. The Russian Ambassador threatened several times to leave Constantinople unless the indemnity question was definitely settled. During the past fortnight he has twice packed up his boxes, though, at the last moment, he was induced to remain, and the difficulties have been increased by the differences between the Sultan and his Ministers."

THE Bombay Guardian, from which we should have expected more sense, quotes with apparent approval from the War Cry the following account of the doings of "Captain Condy," of the Salvation Army at Falmouth :—

"We left Plymouth on the 22nd March, 1881, and arrived in Falmouth on the same day in time to take charge of the meeting, which was held in an Baptist Chapel holding about 1,000 persons. It was crammed to the doors. Nothing particular occurred for the first three nights save a few conversions ; but on Friday night, at the Holiness Service, an extraordinary power took hold of the meeting, and, after I had done reading and speaking, I opened the pool, and, in a few minutes, sinners and saints crowded in. Some remarkable cases of sanctification took place. One man jumped over the seat and, after some time seeking, got the blessing, and

SIX MEN TRIED TO HOLD HIM.

I said, 'Let him alone.' When left to himself he jumped straight up, three times, each time falling on his back, but received no injury, as he was filled with the Holy Ghost. This caused a great deal of curiosity, and more so when they heard him speak, as he previously had never done, because of an impediment in his speech, clearly proving that it was the power of God. Every night after, the place was crowded, and souls were saved up to the next Holiness Meeting, when fifty persons were out for the blessing. I shall never forget when they got it ; fourteen of them turned over on their backs, like dead men and women ; and some of them had opposed the doctrine of Entire Sanctification, from the first time of the Salvation Army coming, but spoke with such power on Sunday night, that fifty persons were very soon down at the Mercy-seat, crying for mercy. This was glorious, but it brought with it at once persecution. Owing to the continual crowding to the Mercy-seat, we had to continue the meetings late at night, and many times we had to carry people home dead to the world."

The Bombay Guardian ought to know that in Constantinople and in many other parts of the East the Howling and the Dancing Dervishes work themselves into convulsions precisely similar in character to those superinduced among these besotted people by the ravings of men like Captain Condy. Every friend of religion and real piety ought to sternly discountenance such wicked tampering with the nervous systems and the sanity of ignorant men and women.

THE APPROACH OF THE MONSOON.

THE Meteorological Reporter to the Government of India telegraphs from Simla :—"No remarks were issued yesterday. The barometric changes of the last two days have been partial and locally varied, resulting in a slight fall in the Punjab, a greater fall in Central India, Rajputana, and Central Provincese, and a rise in Bengal and Assam, causing a reversion towards the normal pressure distribution. In the peninsula the changes have been small and towards rise. The pressure is still below the average except in Bengal. The winds blow in the monsoon directions, encroaching on dry land winds, on the West Coast, from Kurrachee to Mangalore ; they are west in the peninsula, the northerly elements have entirely disappeared ; they are still N. W. or W. N. W. in Northern Rajputana, Central India, and the Central Provinces, but in Guzerat and at Neemuch they are southerly, and throughout the Gangetic plain easterly. The temperature tends to fall, except at a few stations in the Punjab, Rajputana, and Central Provinces. Slight rain is reported from Bengal and Assam, and heavy rain from Akyab. Calicut has had 1¾ inches. Cuddapah reports seven inches, but the report is doubtful."

THE STORM AT CALICUT.

A CORRESPONDENT sends the Madras Mail some particulars of the extraordinary weather experienced on the West Coast on Friday last, the 19th instant. Friday morning looked rather monsoonish; there was a heavy sea, but boats were able to land cargo up to noon, when some very heavy squalls set in from the north-west. The barometer gave but short notice of the bad weather which was so close at hand. At 5-30 p.m. the B. I. steamer Siddhana went to sea, carrying off the tally clerks, coolies, &c. She subsequently experienced the full fury of the gale. About 6-30 p. m. the wind increased, accompanied by rain unusually heavy even for the West Coast. At midnight the wind and rain were furious, and on Saturday morning the following falls were gauged :—

	Inches.
At Cullai Works	25
At Plantation House Works ...	25·22
At the D. P. W. Office ...	18·50
At Karaparamba Work ...	14·17
At West Hill Barracks ...	22·00
At Coojoo Colum Works, Tellicherry	17·50

The surrounding country, which had been parched and dry, was deeply flooded, much damage done, and several lives lost. The large wooden bridge over the Cullai river, between Calicut and Beypore, was carried away, and a ferry is to be established there for a year. This gale and heavy rainfall appear to have been confined to the Coast, and was not felt in Wynaad or the Cochin Hills.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY AT INDORE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

INDORE, MAY 26.

THE Queen's birthday at Indore was celebrated with due ceremony by the usual parades of troops at Indore and Mhow. A durbar was held at 7 a. m. to receive the heir-apparent of the Indore State and his younger brother. Maharajah Holkar is still on his travels, and is now at Hurdwar, whence he proceeds to some famous shrines deep in the Himalayas.

On this occasion, for the first time, the heir-apparent was permitted to represent his father in a public function, and performed his part with great dignity and propriety. The procession which accompanied the Prince was a picturesque one—cavalry, infantry, artillery, and a procession of elephants. After the departure of the Indore Princes, Sir Lepel Griffin received the native gentlemen at Indore, mostly political détênus belonging to the Bhopal, Jhansi, Banda, and other families, and including the Rao Damodar, the adopted son of the rebel Rani of Jhansi, whose amusing and naive petition to be permitted to take possession of the estates of his adoptive father and mother has been published in the Bombay papers, and has caused, both by its style and matter, so much genuine amusement. The third and principal durbar of the day took place in the afternoon, for the reception of their Highnesses the Maharajah of Dhar, and the senior and junior Rajas of Dewas and the Nawab of Jaora. This ceremony was attended by General Sir Robert Phayre, commanding the Mhow Division, and his staff, and the great majority of the officers of the Mhow garrison. The Order of the Indian Empire, conferred on Rao Tantia Gorey, Minister of the senior Raja of Dewas, by Her Imperial Majesty, was presented to him ; and the stars for the march of Sir Frederick Roberts to Kandahar were given to twelve native officers and men of the Central India Horse serving in the personal escort of the Agent, Governor-General. In the evening a banquet was given by Appia Bolia Sahib, son-in-law of Maharajah Holkar, in the Residency grounds, to the Agent, Governor-General, and all the political and military officers of Mhow and Indore. The lawns and gardens on the banks of the river were superbly lighted with electric lamps furnished from Bombay by the Eastern Electric Light and Power Company. The dinner, but as to cooking and wines, was unexceptionable ; and the evening concluded by an exceedingly fine display of English fireworks—a special train taking the ladies and officers back to Mhow at half-past twelve at night.

The Indore custom of associating the birthday of Her Imperial Majesty with some form of public entertainment in which, as on this occasion, the English and natives can associate in a cordial and friendly manner, is an excellent one. The distinguished firm of Kibbia Boss, a family whose name is intimately associated with Central Indian history, gave last year, on the Queen's birthday, a similar entertainment, which was considered a brilliant success ; while the fete of the present year has been remarkable for introducing for the first time, and on a large scale, the electric light into Central India.

The Maharajah of Dhar remains at Indore for a fortnight ; and the Nawab of Jaora also remains a few days, for races which are to be held on Wednesday next on the private race-course of the Residency.

MR. WILLIAM MACKINNON, C. I. E.

WE wonder upon what principle the Government of India bestows its favours, or whether a number of names of presumedly distinguished men are put into a hat and then drawn as at a lottery ? Upon no other theory can we account for the announcement that the name of Mr. William Mackinnon, Chairman of the British India Steam Navigation Company, have been rewarded, acknowledged, confessed or admitted—by a Companionship of the Indian Empire. The services of Mr. Mackinnon to India are altogether unique. He has given India not only a powerful steam fleet, but he has given her a coast trade, which promises to be of as great social usefulness as commercial advantage. He has, moreover, linked Burmah to India, and has done not a little to keep up English political influence in the Gulf of Persia. When we seek amongst the great Ocean lines for a parallel to his services, we find that they are incomparably greater to India than those of Sir Donald Currie to England, and that they are, as we have said, unique. It is idle to say that any one might have succeeded in the enterprise undertaken by Mr. Mackinnon, for not even the most favourable circumstances would develop a few small steamers in the hands of a single man into numerically the largest private steam fleet in the world. Mr. Mackinnon has succeeded, because he is a born administrator of the first-class, a man who unites the widest foresight with the most singular dominion over details. If the opportunity of the Mirza Musjargaon, Magistrate and Honorary Assistant able, it fell into the hands of a man whose genius was not only capable of turning it to the very widest account, but absolutely of creating the opportunity if it had not been presented to him. Yet William Mackinnon is not to receive the honour conferred upon Donald Currie, but the honour conferred upon a native superintendent of the Nizam's Police for catching the dacoit leader, Bulwant Phadke, after Major Daniell had haunted the dacoit down ! He is made a Companion of the Order of the Indian Empire, and receives a decoration which is not even connected with Knighthood—a distinction which is an anomaly, and the value of which is a little less than a gold medal for special service, and a little more than a good conduct medal. If the Government of India had cast about to throw ridicule on the distinctions it bestows, we do not think it could have been more ridiculous than it is by its bestowal of so trumpery a mark of its favour upon a man whose enterprise and sagacity has not only given India the commercial fleet which her necessities demanded, but who, on numerous occasions by means of that fleet, has rendered services of the very highest importance to the Government itself.—Indian Daily News.

MAZAGON ROADS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—As our Municipality is now in a prosperous condition, I would beg to bring to its notice the necessity for immediately widening the Lawrence de Lima-street at Mazagon, as the traffic passing to and fro since the opening of the Frere-road is so much increased, besides the new goods shed being about. That the road will have to be widened is certain, and I therefore think the Municipality should not allow new buildings in that locality ; and I would particularly draw their attention to a building now going on, which was formerly a tavern and is now being converted into a two-storeyed bungalow or chawl, with a gallery projecting on the road. I cannot for a moment suppose that Municipal officers have sanctioned this gallery. The gutters are in an abominable state, and I wonder how cholera or typhoid fever has not yet made its appearance in Lawrence de Lima neighborhood. The other day a child fell into the gutter, near the tavern above referred to. A few stone slabs should be at once placed over the drain, or, what is better, an iron flat covering, so that people crossing the lane at night may not tumble into the gutter.

A MAZAGON-WALLAH.

THE BOMBAY NATIONAL MAHOMEDAN ASSOCIATION.

THIS Association held their first meeting to celebrate the anniversary of the birthday of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, Empress of India, on the 25th instant, at the house of H. E. the Aga Sahabudeen Shah, at Love-lane, Byculla. All classes and sections of the Mahomedan community, viz., the Syads, Arabs, Moguls, Pathans, Koknees, Memons, Bohras, Khojas, Dekannees, Guzerattees, Malabaries, Madrasees, Hindustanis, &c., were represented by leading members of each, the whole numbering about 400 persons, among whom were the following :—H. H. Aga Shahabudeen Shah, President, Kazi Sharif Abdul Latif Lounday, and Vice-President, Messrs. Shaik Mahomed Abdul Latif, Aga Abdul Hasein Shirazi, Aga Mahomed Nabi Khan, Hajee Karim Mahomed Suleman, Abdor Rahman Mini, Hajee Suleman Wahidna, Khan Bahadur Moolvi Surgeon S. H. Cassim, Khan Bahadur Meer Abdul Ali, Messrs. Mirza Hoosein Khan, Mirza Moosa Cowser, Mirza Hasan Khan, Ahmed Esa Bin Khalifa, Shaik Musa Bin Abdul Latif, Syed Gainul Abedin Rafai, Abdur Razzak Bin Kurtas, Aga Mahomed Shah, Aga Muchal Shah, Ali Bin Amar, Abdul Mahsin Bin Mundil, Abdul Razzak Dobechal, Mirza Hidayet, Nakhoda Gulam Hussein Hoghay, Messrs. Munshi Mahomed Ali Gharay, Munshi Goolam Ali Goolam Husein, Haji Shabu Siddik Sett, Hajee Alana Haji Wahidna Sett, Haji Mahomed Hajee Jusuf, Haji Zackriah Ahmed, Haji Metha Kasim, Noor Mahomed Ibrahim, Dawudbhoy Musabhoy, Hasan Meyan Rahmatulla Sett, Mokhi Ladak Haji, Kamarya Mahomed Virji, Dhurumsee Punjabhoy, Peeroo Mahomed, Waras Zangbari, Mahomedbhoy Rowjee, Walibhoy Khanbhoy, Adamjee Peerbhoy, Kaderbhoy Karimjee, Esabhoy Tyab Ali, Rahmanjee Khanbhoy, Kayem Ali Tyab Ali, Dr. Syad Kutbuddin, Sobedar Syad Nabi, Subedar Shaik Lal, Subedar Shaik Ismail, Messrs. Haji Shaik Hussein Dada Meyan, Syad Ebrahim alias Dhondi, Mirza Ahmed, Mirza Abdul Hussein Ispahani, Haji Mahomed Bin Mahomed, Mahomed Myan Munsur, Haji Zekria Jan Mahomed Mahomed Saduk Nimmazee, Shaik Fakir Mahomed Baban, and many others.

The house was tastefully illuminated at 9 p.m. The President and Vice-President on taking their seats, were received with acclamation.

The President, in opening the proceedings said : Gentlemen,—I greet you most cordially on this our first occasion of meeting after the establishment of the Bombay Mahomedan National Association, and I trust you will agree with me in looking upon it as a happy omen that it is held on the anniversary of the birthday of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen-Empress of India. May God bless her. I am glad to tell you that our sister association at Calcutta has telegraphed to us her congratulations, and that notwithstanding the efforts of some misguided individuals, the establishment of the association is an accomplished fact. I say misguided because, as remarked by me at our meeting on the 29th ultimo, there is no reason whatever why this association should clash in any way with any of the Mahomedan institutions now existing. They will have their own limited sphere of usefulness, and I am sure I only echo your sentiments when I say that we wish them one and all god-speed, and that they may flourish and accomplish all possible good. But you have endorsed the fact that the want of an association such as that now inaugurated has been a great want. While it does not interfere in the slightest degree with the religious tenets of any sect, its object is to bind together in one bond of brotherhood the entire Mahomedan community, so that as a representative body of that community it may watch over its welfare, and promote its interests in every possible way. Moreover, the existence of such a body will enable the Government and other authorities to have something tangible to recognise and consult in matters affecting our community; and I hope that we shall be able to conduct our proceedings with a degree of intelligence, prudence, and judgment which will earn for us the sympathy of our rulers and the good-will of our neighbours.

The speech of the President was frequently interrupted by cheers. The President having resumed his seat,

The Vice-President gave the following address :—Gentlemen,—I feel sure that the sentiments of good-will which breathe through the speech of our President will commend themselves to you all. None of us are called upon to renounce in any way our religious doctrines in joining the association ; on the contrary, each of us is thereby allowed the opportunity of exercising that chief gift in this life of doing all in his power to ensure the well men. It is true that we are c but "We have a community nothing can separate, and it is we have formed ourselves into motto of which may well be s to the Mahomedan communi such I trust that many will laudable a cause. (Applause.

A well known Persian poe Tryao, then read an elo composed by him for the occasion. It was chiefly in praise of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, Empress of India ; offered congratulations on the formation of the Mahomedan National Association ; and concluded by invoking blessings for Her Most Gracious Majesty's continued longevity, and expressing a desire that many such celebrations might take place annually.

Khan Bahadur Honorary Surgeon S. H. Cassim, one of the joint-secretaries, then stated that applications were made by Messrs. Abdur Rahman Bin Mini, Moulvi Syad Abdul Fatah, Nacoda Goolam Husein Rogay, Abdul Ruzzak Bin Kurtas, and other gentlemen for admission into the association. The number of applicants for admission was 65, and they were proposed and admitted with acclamation.

The proceedings of the evening were interpreted by Mr. Mirza Musa Cowser, one of the joint-secretaries, in the Urdu language.

A vote of thanks proposed to the President and Vice-President by Abdur Rahman Mini, and seconded by Khan Bahadur Meer Abdul Ali, was carried unanimously. The proceedings having thus ended, all retired to a sumptuous banquet in an adjoining bungalow. The party broke up at about 11 p. m., when the customary pan-leaf, rosewater, and bouquets were distributed, after which H. H. Aga Shahabudeen Shah attended the guests to the portico and bade them good-bye.

A VAGRANT.—Henry Philips, a European, was on Saturday last declared a vagrant by Mr. W. Webb, and ordered to be sent to the Government Workhouse.

PRINCE'S DOCK.—The s.s. Lamperts entered, and the s.s.

question of Mr. Justice Mitter's ability and fitness, the setting aside, in his case, of a practice, which has almost come to be looked upon as a rule, may give rise to questions and difficulties which the Government will do well to avoid. The rule itself is reasonable and proper, and hitherto the Judges themselves are believed to have insisted upon it. If it is considered desirable to depart from it, the change should not be made just as the turn of an able Native Judge has come round.—Indian Daily News.

MADRAS.

SIR F. ROBERTS' TOUR.—It will be remembered that Sir F. Roberts had no sooner taken up the command of the Madras Army then he set out on a tour of inspection, to acquaint himself with the many and widely-scattered stations included in his command. The Chief started from Madras for Burmah, and after inspecting the various stations in that Province, sailed for Calcutta; thence he proceeded by rail to Kamptee; from Kamptee to Secunderabad by railway, and so back to Madras. Put into figures, the Chief's tour works out as follows :—

Rail	4,162½	7,826½ miles.
Coach	377
Water	3,697
Marching	190

A nice little cold weather trip! These figures convey some idea of the area of the Madras command, as well as of the responsibilities which would attach to it in time of war.—Madras Mail.

VIOLENT ASSAULT ON A MADRAS MERCHANT.—Last night (May 25) a violent assault was made by some persons, as yet unknown, on Mr. W. J. Eales, the representative of a firm at home, who do a large business in skins. From what we have been able to ascertain, Mr. Eales was standing in the lane behind his office, watching his ponies being fed, when two men who were passing threw pepper into his eyes, and then struck him on the head with sticks, after which they decamped, and favoured by the incapacity of the object of their assault to give pursuit, managed to make their escape. We are glad to learn that no serious damage has been done, although the wounds have necessitated medical treatment. The scoundrels who committed the assault have not yet been arrested, but information has been given to the police.—Madras Mail.

THE LATE ARCHDEACON OF MADRAS.—The many friends in this Presidency of the Rev. C. R. Drury, late Archdeacon of Madras, will be glad to learn that the Bishop of Chichester has appointed him to the sole charge of the parish of Heathfield, a charming place in Sussex, and within easy reach of Brighton. Our late Archdeacon was appointed on his arrival in England to the insignificant living of Portfield, about two miles from Chichester. Portfield is little more than a subrub of Chichester and possesses a tiny, though elegant, little church. Mr. Drury subsequently acted as senior curate of Horsham, where he has been relieved pro tem by the Rev. W. J. Richards, a well known Travancore Missionary of the C. M. S. We hope that the preferment to Heathfield is only a stepping-stone to a canonry or something suited to the declining years of an old Indian Chaplain.—Madras Mail.

N.-W. PROVINCES, OUDH, AND PUNJAB.

BIRTHDAY BALL AT SIMLA.—The birthday ball last night (May 25) was a very crowded, but none the less enjoyable entertainment, for the night was beautifully clear and warm, so that the verandahs and great shamiana on the lawn, where supper was served, were habitable and pleasant. There must have been over 300 persons present, as the levée the preceding evening was attended by nearly 200 gentlemen. Both at the levée and Ball the Burmese Ambassadors were very conspicuous objects of interest, as their State costumes are gorgeous eccentric in the highest degree, and their hats decorated as elaborately as so many twelfth cakes and surmounted by tall stalks of tinsel visible over the heads of the other guests. Whenever they went they seemed good-humourdly conscious that their appearance was bound to excite a certain amount of merriment, and to be willing to share this themselves instead of being offended. The ball began to break up about one o'clock.—Pioneer.

THE SIMLA MUNICIPALITY.—We understand that the Punjab Government has decided on a complete re-construction of the Simla Municipality on the lines of the self-government resolution issued in the last Gazette. It was practically inevitable that some step of this kind should be taken, as the claims advanced on behalf of the reform party were irresistible; but the conditions of Simla are so peculiar that the effect of bonâ fide local self-government, if this is now introduced, may merely be, in the first instance, to demonstrate the necessity of some Imperial concessions in favour of a place from which so much is demanded in merely Imperial interests.—Pioneer.

THE SIMLA ARTS EXHIBITION.—There will not be any exhibition of industrial art this year at Simla in connection with the Fine Arts Exhibition, as hitherto for the last few years. The exhibitions at Calcutta and Lahore have been held too recently to have given time as yet for any progress which a Simla exhibition could possibly be expected to record. En revanche, we understand Government contemplates some measures designed to put all industrial art exhibitions in India—and we hope fine art exhibitions as well—on a firmer footing than that which they have occupied hitherto.—Pioneer.

PASSENGER TRAFFIC ON THE PESHAWUR RAILWAY.—Of course at present railway travelling is a great novelty to the natives of the Trans-Indian portion of the province of the Punjab. Five hundred or more of them went the other day, and I believe go daily, from the Peshawar (city) station to Khairabad, which is, as you know, on the right bank of the Indus and is opposite to Attock. The greater part of them were genuine holiday makers, and they did seem to enjoy the trip. Tickets are issued as early as 12 noon; and long before fourteen o'clock, as the cosmopolitan telegraph clocks very sensibly term 2 p.m., which is the advertised time for starting, sufficient tickets had been taken to fill the train. By twenty minutes to 2 p.m. all passengers by the single daily train to Khairabad, which on the 1st of May superseded the weekly cattle-truck, were seated and patiently waiting to move on; there was no hurry and no confusion; those who only came half-an-hour or even three-quarters of an hour before the time were good humouredly advised to wait till next day, which they apparently cheerfully made up their minds to do.—Correspondent of the Englishman.

OBITUARY.—Sheikh Nabi Baksh, Khan Bahadur, the wealthy resident of Meerut, and well-known to all as a liberally charitable gentleman, has just died. He had been ailing for some months past from a general break up of the constitution, but his death was accelerated by a journey taken in the heat from Delhi. Nabi Baksh was of comparatively humble origin, but had raised himself by admirable business-qualifications, enterprise, and perseverance, to the position of one of the most wealthy men in the province, having considerable landed property, shares in banks, and other personal property. He was well-known to use his large wealth in deeds of the widest charity. For the assistance he gave during the last campaign in Kabul to the Commissariat Department, the title of Khan Bahadur was bestowed upon him.—Pioneer.
